VEHICLE ACCIDENT

Two Questions You Should Ask Yourself after a Car Accident.

- 1 Who is at fault for the accident?
- 2 What have I lost because of the accident?

The following items can help show how the accident happened:

- The police report given to you by the officer at the scene;
- Any photographs or videos taken at the scene of the accident;
- Names and contact information of witnesses

If you have a injury that is having a significant impact on your ability to earn a living do housework and take care of you home and family you may have a case under the “threshold” regulations in Ontario.

Do I need a lawyer?

Insurance companies are pros when it comes to resolving cases for the least amount possible. Your own experienced personal injury lawyer can tell you realistically how much you case is worth so you don't mistakenly accept a low ball offer.

They will be merciless in taking advantage of an unrepresented injury victim.

Do not provide them with

- Statements,
- Medical authorizations, or
- Settle your case,

until you have spoken with a lawyer.
